(limit 2,500 characters)

LA-507 CoC has created a relationship with local law enforcement and fire departments and shares information with them. The CoC also communicates with Law enforcement frequently to ensure that information is provided in a timely manner. When officers report the need for Outreach services we reach out to the individuals to provide basic need, connect them to resources and housing options.

1C-10a. Protecting Public Safety—Plan to Quickly Clear Tents and Encampments.

If you cannot provide any mitigating steps, please explain why.

(limit 2,500 characters)

Currently LA-507 CoC only has one city ordinance regarding panhandling. The State of Louisiana recently passed a law against public camping that goes into effect January 1, 2027. Local efforts are being organized to create a task force to address these issues and will include, City, Police, Fire, Homeless Service Providers, Fath Based organizations, and concerned citizens. At this time the LA-507 does not have data to share, 1C-10c. Protecting Public Safety—Plan to Decrease the Public Use of Illicit Drugs.

Identify local laws, policies, or other practices that help or hinder the CoC's ability to decrease the public use of illicit drugs and quickly connect individuals who are using illicit drug in public with appropriate services and/or law enforcement and provide a plan explaining how the CoC will leverage beneficial policies while overcoming the harmful effects of restrictive ones. If you cannot provide any mitigating steps, please explain why.

(limit 2,500 characters)

LA-507 CoC has no knowledge regarding laws or ordinances or policies other than the possession of illicit drugs are against the law in the State of Louisiana. The CoC addresses public use of illicit drugs through outreach, treatment & recovery connections, overdose response and cooperation with law enforcement. When providers encounter public drug use, staff engage the individual, advise that public use is illegal, offer treatment and recovery resources, involve emergency medical services when medically necessary and coordinate with law enforcement when appropriate. Restrictive factors include limited treatment-bed availability and individuals declining treatment. The CoC mitigates these barriers by using available residential and outpatient options, peer and behavioral health supports, overdose-response capacity and continued engagement rather than ending outreach after refusal. When treatment is unavailable or declined, providers continue addressing housing and other needs while reinforcing that public illicit drug use is prohibited.

1C-10d. Protecting Public Safety—Current Status of Overdoses and Illicit Drug Use in Public Spaces.

Describe the current status of overdoses and illicit drug use in public spaces in the CoC's geographic area.

(limit 2,500 characters)

LA-507 does not maintain separate surveillance for overdoses or illicit drug use occurring specifically in public spaces. Available state and local public-health data demonstrate a continuing substance use and overdose problem, while data specific to people experiencing homelessness or public-space incidents are limited. Outreach teams report they have not witnessed active public use but have encountered people who appeared to be under the influence of a substance. Louisiana recorded 1,503 drug overdose deaths in 2024, down from 2,255 in 2023, a 33.3% decrease. State behavioral health data indicate overdose deaths peaked in 2021 and have continued to decline, although providers report increasing visits for substance use disorder (SUD), indicating continued treatment need.

1C-10e. Protecting Public Safety—Standards to Address Danger to Self or Others.

Identify local laws, policies, or other practices that help or hinder the CoC's ability to utilize standards that address homeless individuals who are a danger to themselves or others (e.g., involuntary commitment) and provide a plan explaining how the CoC will leverage beneficial policies while overcoming the harmful effects of restrictive ones. If you cannot provide any mitigating steps, please explain why.

Louisiana law provides standards and procedures for responding when mental illness or a substance-related or addictive disorder results in danger to self, danger to others or grave disability. Under R.S. 28:53, qualified professionals may execute emergency certificates following examination, and law enforcement may take individuals into protective custody under specified circumstances. R.S. 28:53.2 also permits a parish coroner or judge to order protective custody (OPC) for immediate examination based on information from a peace officer or other credible person.
CoC providers use these processes when behavioral health needs create immediate safety concerns, contacting 911, emergency medical services or mobile crisis depending on urgency and providing information or observations when appropriate. OPCs have enabled some participants resistant to voluntary services who became a danger to themselves or others to access stabilizing treatment. Following treatment, warm handoffs back to housing providers have allowed participants to resume work on income and housing needs while remaining connected to mental health/SUD care. These standards appropriately protect individuals from involuntary intervention when legal criteria are not met.
A challenge occurs when a person has serious mental illness, significant delusions or functional impairment but does not present sufficient danger or grave disability for involuntary intervention. The person may remain unable or unwilling to engage effectively in treatment, housing or other services despite substantial needs.
LA-507 CoC mitigates this gap through continued voluntary engagement rather than treating failure to meet commitment criteria as the end of intervention. Outreach, behavioral health, crisis, healthcare & housing providers continue relationship building, reassess needs and risks, offer treatment and housing resources & reengage crisis or emergency systems when warranted. LA-507 will leverage Louisiana’s emergency-intervention framework when legal standards are met while strengthening mobile crisis, voluntary treatment, warm handoffs following stabilization & sustained engagement for people whose needs are serious but do not meet the threshold for involuntary intervention.

1C-10f. Protecting Public Safety—Share Information in Accordance with SORNA.

Identify local laws, policies, or other practices that help or hinder the CoC's ability to comprehensively share information, including location information, in accordance with the Sex Offender Registry and Notification Act (SORNA) and provide a plan explaining how the CoC will leverage beneficial policies while overcoming the harmful effects of restrictive ones. If you cannot provide any mitigating steps, please explain why.

(limit 2,500 characters)

LA-507 CoC does not collect sex-offender registration status in HMIS; therefore, CoC data cannot be used to quantify registered sex offenders experiencing homelessness. The CoC instead relies on the state and local law-enforcement systems responsible for registration and supervision. Louisiana DPS&C reports supervising approximately 2,200 people convicted of sex offenses in communities statewide, noting this represents only a fraction of those required to register. Locally, the LA-507 CoC works with Probation and Parole to ensure sex offender supervision.
Louisiana law establishes registration and location-reporting requirements for registered sex offenders, including people experiencing homelessness. Under R.S. 15:542.1.1, a registered offender who is homeless or lacks a fixed residence must update registration in person every 14 days with the sheriff in each parish where the person regularly resides. Louisiana law also addresses location reporting when an individual lacks a fixed address.
LA-507 CoC providers cooperate with these requirements and do not assist participants in avoiding registration obligations. The CoC also will provide transportation for individuals who have scheduled in-person visits with the assigned parole officer. Providers encourage individuals with supervision requirements to coordinate with parole officers and appropriate law enforcement and assist them in identifying legally permissible housing. Providers respond to lawful information requests consistent with applicable law and privacy requirements. These requirements provide a mechanism for maintaining location information when an individual is unsheltered. The CoC leverages relationships among homeless service providers, law enforcement and justice-system partners to support compliance while addressing homelessness. Housing restrictions can also make homelessness more difficult to resolve. The CoC mitigates this barrier by continuing housing problem-solving by helping individuals identify legally permissible housing rather than ending assistance. The CoC will continue supporting registration and location-reporting compliance while helping registered individuals obtain lawful housing, reducing homelessness and barriers to continued compliance.

1C-11. Outreach Strategy.

Describe your CoC’s strategy to outreach to all individuals and families experiencing homelessness across your geographic area.

(limit 2,500 characters)

LA-507 CoC maintains street outreach coverage across all 8 parishes of Region 6, adapting to the region's substantial rural communities. Outreach occurs where people experiencing homelessness sleep, gather or access basic needs, including wooded areas, abandoned buildings, vehicles, libraries, meal programs, emergency departments and other community locations. Staff can complete Coordinated Entry assessments in the field, eliminating the need to travel to an office. Volunteers of America, Alexandria (PATH) conducts outreach within the urban area. The CoC also deploys volunteers throughout all 8 parishes during the annual Point-in-Time Count. Outreach occurs in every parish at least monthly and weekly in higher-volume areas. Outreach teams also work with libraries, hospitals, meal providers, churches, businesses, law enforcement and neighborhood groups to identify people needing engagement. Outreach does not end when someone declines assistance. Staff return, try different approaches and build trust at the individual's pace. Early engagement may consist only of brief contact, meeting an immediate need or returning to provide requested basic needs. These interactions can eventually create opportunities for Coordinated Entry, shelter, housing, behavioral health, substance use treatment, benefits or other services. This persistent approach is very important for people who have been unsheltered long-term or are not otherwise engaged with providers. The CoC will continue strengthening community referral pathways while maintaining field-based outreach, so geography or transportation issues do not prevent people from being connected to services.

Staff also assess participants' ability to independently complete activities of daily living (ADLs), which helps identify when personal care assistance, assisted living, or nursing care may be needed. Service intensity is adjusted as needs change, and regular contact allows staff to identify changes in psychiatric, medical, functional, or substance use needs that may require additional intervention.

Describe how the project(s) identified in 1C-19 has a policy for assessing program participant readiness for moving on to unsubsidized or other permanent housing.

(limit 2,500 characters)

Move-on readiness is based on the participant's individual circumstances rather than a predetermined length of stay. Indicators include sustained housing stability, increased income, development of community and natural supports, independent-living capacity, and a decreased need for case management. When these indicators suggest that a participant may no longer requires the intensity of PSH services, staff affirmatively explore move-on with the participant and frame the transition as “graduation” from the program, emphasizing increased independence rather than loss of assistance. In addition, the desire and interest to move on from PSH is also often proposed by the client themselves during regular check-ins with case management. Participants who continue to require PSH are not expected to move on simply to create a vacancy. For participants ready to graduate, case managers identify the permanent housing arrangement most appropriate to the participant's needs and preferences. Whenever feasible the project provider seeks to preserve housing stability by transitioning the participant's existing unit into a lease in the participant's own name, avoiding an unnecessary move. When relocation is appropriate and/or necessary, staff assist with identifying housing and the transition.

HUD publishes resources on the HUD.gov website at CoC Program Competition to assist you in completing the CoC Application. Resources include:

- Notice of Funding Opportunity (NOFO) Continuum of Care Competition and Noncompetitive Award of Youth Homeless Demonstration Program Renewal and Replacement Grants; and
- Frequently Asked Questions

We have provided the following guidance to help you successfully upload attachments and get maximum points:

1.	You must include a Document Description for each attachment you upload; if you do not, the Submission Summary screen will display a red X indicating the submission is incomplete.
2.	You must upload an attachment for each document listed where 'Required?' is 'Yes'.
3.	We prefer that you use PDF files, though other file types are supported–please only use zip files if necessary. Converting electronic files to PDF, rather than printing documents and scanning them, often produces higher quality images. Many systems allow you to create PDF files as a Print option. If you are unfamiliar with this process, you should consult your IT Support or search for information on Google or YouTube.
4.	Attachments must match the questions they are associated with.
5.	Only upload documents responsive to the questions posed–including other material slows down the review process, which ultimately slows down the funding process.
6.	If you cannot read the attachment, it is likely we cannot read it either.
	. We must be able to read the date and time on attachments requiring system-generated dates and times, (e.g., a screenshot displaying the time and date of the public posting using your desktop calendar; screenshot of a webpage that indicates date and time).
	. We must be able to read everything you want us to consider in any attachment.
7.	After you upload each attachment, use the Download feature to access and check the attachment to ensure it matches the required Document Type and to ensure it contains all pages you intend to include.
8.	Only use the 'Other' attachment option to meet an attachment requirement that is not otherwise listed in these detailed instructions.
